

SQL QUESTIONS

1. Find total sales revenue by product.
2. Count the number of orders for each order status.
3. Find the top 5 customers by total spending.
4. Calculate average order value by payment method.
5. Find products sold more than 100 times.
6. Show monthly revenue trends.
7. Find customers who placed more than 3 orders.
8. Determine the most frequently used coupon code.
9. Calculate average quantity ordered per product.
10. Find all cancelled orders with order value greater than $500.
11. Rank products by total revenue generated.
12. Find the percentage contribution of each product to total revenue.
13. Identify customers who used more than one payment method.
14. Find the average order value for each referral source.
15. Determine which referral source generated the highest revenue.
16. Find repeat customers (customers with more than one order).
17. Calculate revenue lost from cancelled orders.
18. Compare average order values between coupon users and non-coupon users.
19. Find the most popular product in each year.
20. Identify customers whose spending exceeds the overall average customer spending.
21. Calculate month-over-month revenue growth percentage.
22. Find the top-selling product each month using window functions.
23. Calculate customer lifetime value (CLV).
24. Segment customers into High, Medium, and Low spenders.
25. Identify customers whose latest order was cancelled.
26. Detect customers whose spending increased month-over-month.

- 27. Find products contributing to 80% of total revenue (Pareto Analysis).
- 28. Compute rolling 3-month revenue totals.
- 29. Identify the most effective coupon code based on generated revenue and usage frequency.
- 30. Build a customer retention analysis using cohort analysis.